General Power of Competence

The Government as part of the Localism Act 2011 introduced a new 'General Power of Competence' for local councils. The Power gives eligible local councils 'the power to do anything that individuals generally may do' providing it is within the law. In order to adopt the Power, Councils need to demonstrate that they fulfil the criterion which includes:

- (i) having a qualified Clerk
- (ii) the number of Councillors elected at the last election or at a subsequent by-election must equal or exceed $\frac{2}{3}$ of the total number of seats on the council

Resolved - that Lanchester Parish Council meets the criteria for the General Power of Competence and adopts the Power
